All applicants will be contacted and informed whether their application is successful or not. Success or failure of all media accreditation applications is entirely at the discretion of the ARIA Awards publicists. All decisions communicated to accreditation applicants will be final and binding and no correspondence will be entered into.

Once contacted and informed of a successful accreditation application request, each applicant must reply in writing to confirm his or her attendance. Applicants will then be supplied with accreditation collection information.

APPLICANT OBLIGATIONS

The applicant agrees to:

1. Abide by any terms of entry by the ARIA Awards Publicists.
2. Wear any identifying passes at all times during the event.

ACCREDITATION IS NOT TRANSFERABLE

Accreditation passes may only be carried and used by the applicant and may not be assigned or transferred to any other person.

CONDUCT

The applicant agrees to conduct themselves in a professional manner during the 2009 ARIA Awards. The applicant agrees not to interfere with other media, artists or the artist's representatives.

ACCREDITATION COLLECTION

Accreditations may only be picked up by the bearer and not by a representative. Accreditations will only be issued on receipt of valid identification i.e. drivers license or passport. Accreditations will be available to be picked up on Monday 23rd November and Tuesday 24th November between 10am and 4pm.

REGULATIONS REGARDING EMBARGO

All media will be required to sign a Nine Network / ARIA embargo release form outlining timing and restrictions for the event.

INFORMATION / REGULATIONS FOR PHOTOGRAPHERS

1. ARIA has an official photography team in place.
2. Photographic space is limited and multiple accreditation applications from media outlets / agencies will be considered on a case-by-case basis. All decisions communicated to accreditation applicants will be final and binding and no correspondence will be entered into.
3. Photographers are not allowed to enter the auditorium at any time unless pre-arranged with ARIA publicity. Priority will go to official and news photographers.
4. There will a special photographers area both on the red carpet and in the media room from which photographers will be able to work.
5. Photographers are not permitted to shoot at the official after party.
6. Photographers who do not comply with the regulations will have their accreditation withdrawn.
